

But Too! The Sinner with Care
Inspired by Holy Spirit, Written by Franklin Thom

Words come out from the mouth of babes
There is Love, Joy, Peace with faith for those Who will seek salvation in Jesus who saves
These things are not as they suppose.

Scattered to many places, but nowhere to hide
Under a rock, in a deep forest floor
Even the earth shakes, Lava flows or hurricane tide
A world full of confusion, may it be rich or poor.

In the midst of these, there comes a time
Still running, playing, sing many of song
Run in life's race, so fast thinking all is fine
To choose one's destiny, may it be not wrong.

Who died for our sins, to His last breath
When wrong is done someone, something, somewhere
Jesus who saves us from sin and an eternal death
He not only loves us, but too, the sinner with care.
