Visions of You Appear
In My Everyday

There are many different ways you show up!
While lighting a fire, looking at a rock
Images of your face, or mine in a glass cup,
Your face will appear at my door with a knock!!

You are in my thoughts; when love reminds me
Of you, your beauty, and that sexy smile
So, today, your kisses showed in a tree,
Carved with your smile, and it makes me wild!!

In the clouds, there's your beauty that shows
At night; the stars sparkle your eyes
That special look only this man knows.
And I hope you still love me "no lies!"

I see you in my buds, who know us both
Their songs are our memories, and envisions
So, please remember the solemn Oath
Every day, you appear in my mind's vision.

I love you, Me.
